THE AFGHAN-RUSSIAN DISPUTE.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE TRIBUNE.]

LONDON, March 25.—[Special.]—The country seems over a precipice of war with Russia is again in full swing. The rejection scheme of Lord Dufferin in India and the conquering ambitions of Russia are combined for more excitement than the opening operations of the Nihilists in Parliament. The military clubs are in a ferment of excitement and make a consequence of the attending noise that all officers of the United service look on dangers of all kinds with supreme indifference to fatty surrender. Many of them have applied officers only arrived in England during the last week, and have had to start back for India before they have had time to greet their friends. Scores of officers have booked passages for India for the Easter season the next week.

RUSSIAN AGGRESSION.

Another fresh and startling fact touching the question of peace or war with Russia, notwithstanding the signs of the two governments, a great deal of diplomatic sparring is still in progress. The heart of the Liberal administration is deep and sincerely saddened by their utter, and Lord Rosebery has been summoned to assume the Mad Mullah and arrive upon diplomacies to avert another war. The Liberals, and Lord Rosebery is the head of the Liberal party, is said to be in favor of a peaceful settlement of the Russian question, and has been selected to represent the views of Russia. The secret negotiations are said to be in favor of Russia, and the Russian Ambassador to Constantinople is said to be in favor of the Russian cause.
